ANNUAL WORKERS COMPENSATION SEMINAR

NOVEMBER 16, 2018

Larkfield Place | 7373 E 29th Street N, Wichita, Kansas

KING is pleased to sponsor this year's Annual Workers Compensation Seminar.

This year's seminar highlights include 2019 Safety Grant, Case Law Update, claim management best practice, OSHA update and advances in pain management.

All KING members are encouraged to have a representative attend this important event. All LeadingAge Kansas members are welcome to attend. Administrators and nurses will receive continuing education credits for attending the entire seminar.

KING is a group-funded workers compensation pool that has provided workers compensation coverage for members since April 1, 1990. KING is an innovator in workers compensation and has developed specific programs for elder care organizations:

- Loss control programs specifically tailored for your organization
- Innovative programs including the Safe-lift and STAR training program
- Aggressive claims management
- Nurse case management for incidents involving lifting or transferring of residents and other potentially difficult claims
- Nearly $7 Million in dividends returned to members

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Human Resource Professionals, Administrators, Nurses and any staff responsible for workers' compensation in their organization should attend. Every KING member should have a representative attend this seminar.

SEMINAR OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of the seminar, participants will be able to understand, identify and/or implement:

- New KING resources available to members
- New case law impact on workers' compensation
- Current state of OSHA's reporting requirements
- New advances in pain management

FACULTY

Kevin McFarland is the President of the KING program. Kevin has been with LeadingAge Kansas & KING for nearly 33 years. Kevin manages the operation of KING – a group-funded workers compensation pool providing risk management services to over 50 LeadingAge Kansas members. Kevin earned his Bachelor Degree in social work from Kansas State University. He was the Director of Social Services at Meadowlark Hills in Manhattan prior to joining LeadingAge Kansas in 1985.
