FAMILY MATTERS: CREATING PERSON CENTERED CARE PARTNERS

8:00 AM - 9:30 AM 1.5 RC

Stephanie Gfeller @ Judy Miller, Kansas State Center on Aging

Many discussions about person-centered care that include the family are focused on the challenges of working with family members or how they stand in way of person-centered care. Not this one! Stephanie and Judy will explore the importance of creating person-centered care partners out of resident family members. The barriers that make this relationship difficult and solution for overcoming those will be discussed. Individualized care plans and acceptance of risk are critical pieces of person-centered care and they will show you how family care partners can be an integral part of the process.
